

Harding University
Scholar Works at Harding

---

John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

---

1-31-1964

To: Dr. Batsell Barrett Baxter

John Allen Chalk

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

---

Recommended Citation

Chalk, J. A. (1964). To: Dr. Batsell Barrett Baxter. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/1182>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

HARDING
UNIVERSITY

January 31, 1964

Dr. Batsell Barrett Baxter
David Lipscomb College
Nashville, Tennessee

Dear Brother Baxter:

I am in the midst of your well developed study of the Yale Lectures, The Heart of the Yale Lectures. Although aware of the book and its importance for several years, I did not find the time or the occasion to study it as I should have. This makes the work that much more rewarding and my regret for not having studied it sooner much deeper.

In connection with four sessions that I will conduct at the Oklahoma Christian College Lectures on the "Preacher and Preaching", I would like a brief comment from you about the remarks made in the last paragraph on page 69 of your book. Do you still find the time or make the time to read and prepare generally as the thought of that paragraph indicates. Any brief comment concerning your practice in the midst of one of the busiest lives of all God's servants will be appreciated.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

JAC/sw